FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Michigan Equine Scholarship fund has announced its 2019 scholarship recipients. Students must show an equine background as well as an interest in pursuing equine-related studies.

Chosen based on strong academic record and interest in horses and involvement in state horse related programs, the following students have received generous checks to help them in the fall of this year.

Lily Atkinson of Spring Lake, Michigan who attends Michigan State University. She will be a Junior in equine studies in hopes of pursuing a doctor of veterinary medicine.

Maggie Carter of Toledo, Ohio, a sophomore at Colorado State University who is studying equine science.

Laney Zwerk of Vassar, Michigan who will be a freshman at Northwood University this fall.

Michigan Equine Scholarship Fund is a registered 501(c)3 and is dedicated to the encouragement and investment in all equine youth and/or the children of our military veterans involved in equine related therapeutic recovery, to offer access to the appropriate or desired post-secondary education, included, but not limited to two and four year colleges and universities, community colleges and vocational and trade schools, regardless of economic circumstances.
